

THE WAIT IS OVER... CARMEL VALLEY SWIRLS IS NOW OPEN!

What a great way to start the new year with the opening of the much anticipated Carmel Valley Swirls! The yogurt shop is owned by Evan Wilensky, a graduate of Torrey Pines High School. Wilensky opened his first Swirls location in Del Mar and a second shop in Encinitas shortly thereafter. The Carmel Valley Swirls will be home to more than 51 rotating flavors, with 10 flavors available each day and many flavors created daily including Cake Batter, Red Velvet, Tart Pomegranate, Dolce De Leche, Plain Tart, Cookies & Cream and Dreamy Peanut Butter.

Vintage American Bakery Concept Aims to Revive the Art of Celebration, Featuring Indulgent, Classically Handmade Confections

Del Mar - Slated to open in March 2012, Del Mar Highlands' Towne Bakery makes every day a little sweeter-offering vintage American desserts and classic confections, handcrafted, according to the chef, with the finest traditional ingredients. The first of its kind in San Diego, Towne Bakery is an iconic destination known for expertly-prepared and thoughtfully-presented cakes, pies, cupcakes, cookies and specialty items in a warm, friendly environment.
